Building resiliency across the country one community at a time

Project Rise visits PTC Communities in Imus, Cavite

Project RISE is coming to PTC Communities in the City of Imus! PTC's Project RISE Team together with Asia Society for Social Improvement and Sustainable Transformation (ASSIST) visited the PTC Communities in Imus, Cavite to discuss the proposed implementation of Project RISE and Sea Mariners Program in the communities of ACM Homes.

The Homeowners Association (HOA) Presidents of Pacific Terraces Community East, Main, North, and South villages listened attentively to the presentations facilitated by ASSIST's Tracy Cauple and the PTC Project RISE representatives - Program Lead Hector Brizuela and Program Officer Josh McCarver.

All HOA Presidents expressed their enthusiasm for the initiative and expressed their appreciation of Project RISE's goal of building resiliency among local communities.

Project Rise extends advocacy to Balayan, Batangas

The Project RISE team met with the officials of the Municipality of Balayan, Batangas to provide updates on the initiative as well as on other PTC-led programs in the area.

The team also met with Balayan Mayor-Elect Hon. JR Fronda to brief him on developments concerning Project RISE activities and upcoming PTC initiatives that the municipality may look forward to in the coming weeks.

Mayor-Elect Hon. Fronda is optimistic and thankful for the support that PTC extends toward Balayan and its residents through the implementation of Project RISE.
